

JEWETT GOD'S TROUBADOUR – ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

God's Troubadour, the Story of St. Francis of Assisi

by Sophie Jewett (1861-1909)

Francis, a young Italian boy, is a merchant's son who is enthralled by the troubadour songs and tales of knights that his father brings back from his travels. He decides to become a knight, but after seeing the poor and suffering in the tragedies of war, he decides to give away all of his worldly possessions and become a troubadour for God.

Total running time: 2:30:13

Read by Sean McKinley

Cover design by Kathryn Delaney
Painting by Albert Chevallier Tayler,
St. Francis, (1898)

JEWETT GOD'S TROUBADOUR – ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI